

Provoking Better Ministry through Evaluation
Bibliography

Sarah Drummond, Holy Clarity, the Practice of Planning and Evaluation. The Alban Institute, 2009

Getting clear about what is being done, why it is being done, and how it is being done can help a faith community make the kind of difference it ought to make.

Jill Hudson, When Better Isn't Enough, Evaluation Tools for the 21st Century Church. The Alban Institute, 2004

Describes the challenges of the post-modern context for being church and names 12 characteristics of an effective 21st century pastor. Hudson then provides evaluation tools for evaluating those 12 characteristics in the church's pastor and congregation.

David McMahil, Completing the Circle. The Alban Institute, 2003

Grounded in the notion of shared ministry McMahill's method offers a way for a pastor and the congregation's leaders to be accountable to each other and eventually, to God.

Cynthia Woolever and Deborah Bruce, Beyond the Ordinary: Ten Strengths of U.S. Congregations. Westminster John Knox Press, 2004 best used in concert with "The Congregational Life Survey," <http://www.uscongregations.org/survey.htm>

This book describes the research findings of The US Congregational Life Survey which helps name the strengths evident in a congregation. The emphasis is on the premise that knowing oneself gives confidence to face the future. The survey, taken in worship on a random Sunday, identifies the congregation's top three strengths. Again the focus is on building on strengths not fixing weaknesses.

Kerry Patterson, Joseph Grenny, Ron McMillan, Al Switzler, Crucial Conversations: Tools for Talking When Stakes are High, McGraw Hill Pub

This book discusses ways to create an atmosphere and environment for safe, open, and honest conversations, particularly when sensitive issues and feelings are involved.

Jacqueline Stavros: The Thin Book of Soar Thin Book Publishing

This book offers some excellent insights into a visioning strategy that incorporates, energizes and inspires the whole organization

Prepared as part of the Whole Church Evaluations workshop, presented by Don Remick, Associate Conference Minister, Massachusetts Conference, United Church of Christ October, 2014