

Description

The Music Minister is a creative, collaborative team member whose talents and vision will contribute to the ongoing transformation of Greendale People's Church, an independent, "non-denominational" congregation. In collaboration with the Pastor and Worship Teams, the Music Minister will craft and implement a vision for our music program that enhances the life and ministry of the congregation, incorporates a variety of musical styles, and inspires congregants of all ages.

Responsibilities:

- develop the vision for the music program;
- plan the musical components for worship that incorporate a variety of styles;
- plan, direct and accompany the choir in rehearsal and worship;
- provide accompaniment for congregation, soloists and the choir at Sunday Worship Services and occasional special/holiday worship services;
- identify and arrange for accompanists in the event of an absence.

Skills and Qualifications:

- experience accompanying others with piano is required, experience with other instruments such as organ, guitar, etc. is desirable, though not required;
- experience working in a positive, collaborative way to lead volunteer choirs, ensembles and/or teams;
- familiarity with a range of musical styles applicable to worship;
- affirm our core values, which include spirituality, inclusivity and healthy relationships;
- Bachelor's degree or equivalent, desired.
- Pass a background check.

For 124 years Greendale People's Church has celebrated an unconventional, non-dogmatic, inclusive form of Christianity. Today we are a community of 125 active members who welcome everyone wherever they are on their life or spiritual journey. Each Sunday we hold a 45-minute weekly communion service in our chapel at 8:30am and a celebration service in our sanctuary at 10am. With deep roots, rich history and strong community we are boldly embracing transformative ways to bring healing and hope to our community, city and world.

Job Type: Part-time (10-19 hours per week)
